

DIANE PHILLIPS

Diane is the author of 14 cookbooks, including the James Beard Award nominated Perfect Party Food. A traveling cooking teacher, Diane teaches her easy, elegant do-ahead approach to entertaining and home cooking across the country. Featured at Viking Culinary Arts Centers, Sur La Table, Draeger's and Ramekins, Diane also teaches at independent cooking schools. Her relaxed style and easy manner puts students at ease, even when it comes to holiday entertaining.

Diane began a love affair with French cooking while watching Julia Child on KPBS in Boston as a teenager. Incorporating Julia's classical methods with those of her Italian grandmother and mother, Diane helps home cooks to recreate and enjoy foods and flavors of Europe, while incorporating local and seasonal ingredients.

Diane appears on local media while touring and has appeared on QVC, PBS, NPR, as well as Eye on the Bay (San Francisco) Good Morning New York (NBC-New York) Comcasts' on-demand and internet Digital Cookbook and Northwest Afternoon (Seattle).
